HE remembrance of a task fairly accomplished never supplants the ambition for future achievement but rather seasons man's desires for greater fulfilment. And so it is that the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-two presents this record of its life at Bucknell with a general theme of Ambition--an Ambition inspired by the lives and accomplishments of those who have gone before us, our Alumni.

DEDIC

S L'Agenda mirrors Bucknell University so the University reflects the spirit and strength of her alumni. It is to these thousands of sons and daughters that this book is dedicated in recognition of that devotion and love which has made the alumni "The Life Blood of the College."

The alumni are the measure of Bucknell's success and her most priceless asset. They are her sharpest critics and her most loyal defenders.

As we prepare to join the ranks of the alumni we express a hope that we also may be worthy sons and daughters of a great mother and that our lives may reflect greater glory upon Bucknell.

We have chosen eight Bucknellians, outstanding men in various fields, as representative alumni to whom we dedicate the eight sections of this book. Their names appear on the opposite page.

To the Class of 1932

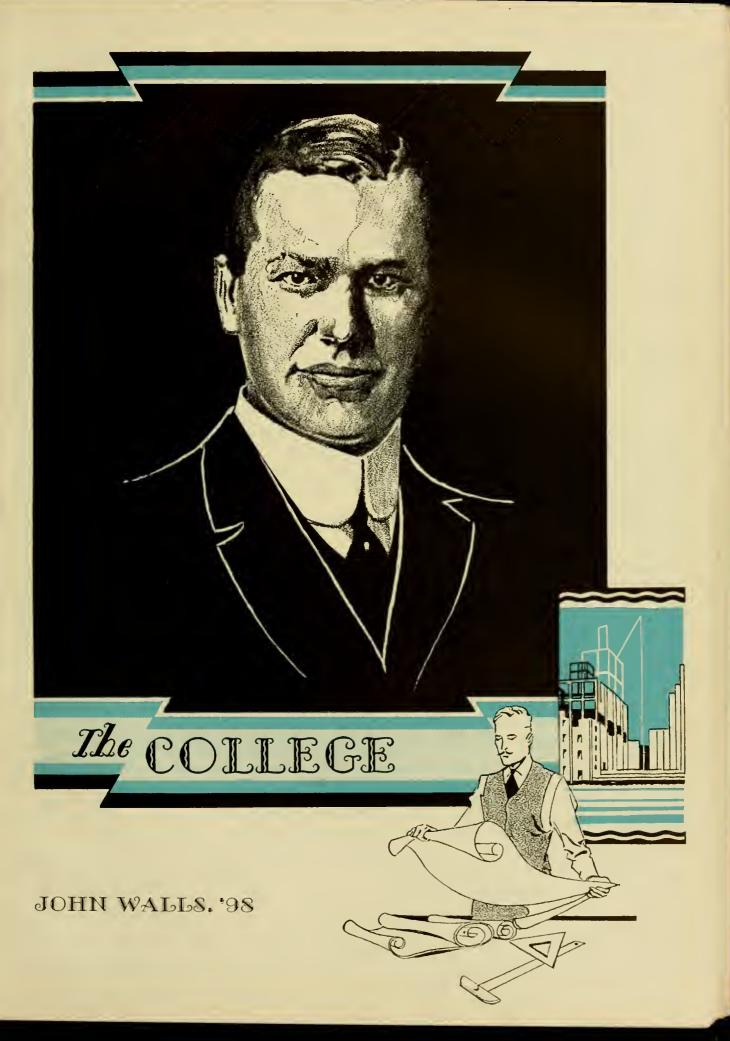

E are gratified that you recognize in us a part of Bucknell. We feel that we are a vital part of Alma Mater and your recognition of us warms our hearts anew to "The College on The Hill." We were once in your places as students there. We know and love Lewisburg, the river, and the quiet peaceful beauty of it all. Your thought of us turns back our minds to those days when we enjoyed the privileges that you now know. Some of the men we revered as professors have passed on. Others still honor Bucknell with their presence on her faculty. You have come to know some of these men and as years go by the memory of your acquaintanceships will become golden. It is ties such as these that knit us all together as we stand at the feet of our common Mother—Bucknell.

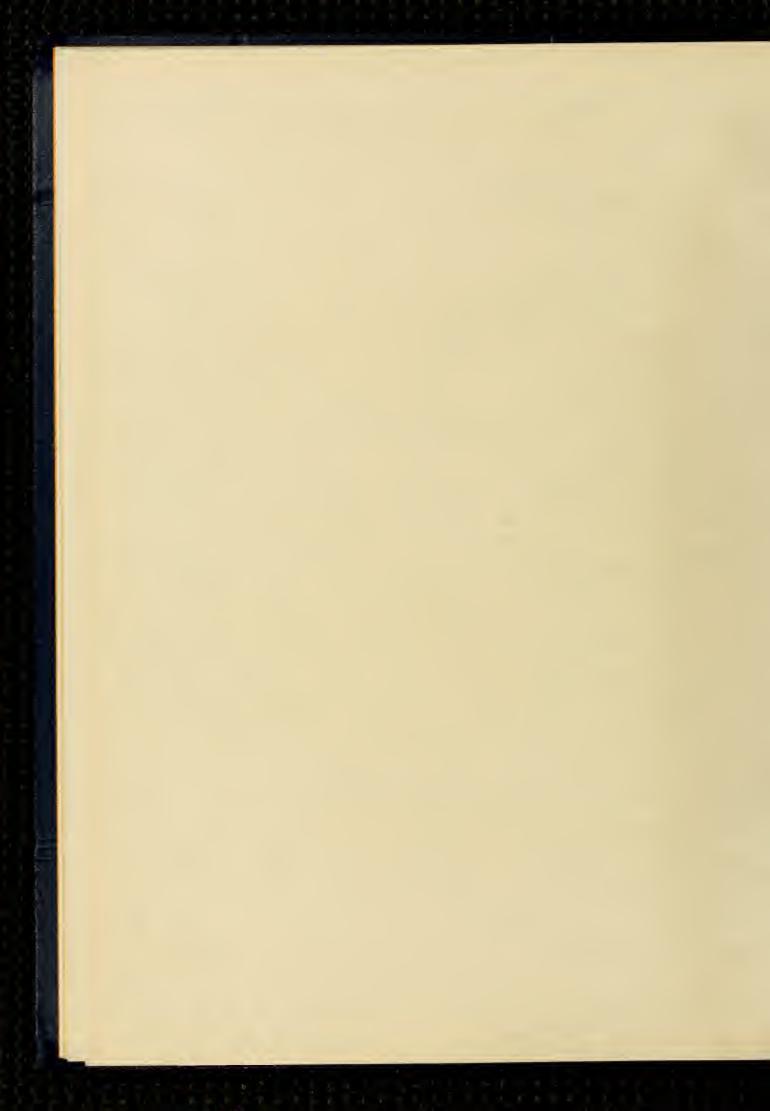

You belong to Bucknell today more indelibly than you know for now you are weaving that indivisible tie that will link you through life to your college. May your undergraduate days be happy ones for in the mirror of such happy memories you will often see the real worth of Bucknell.

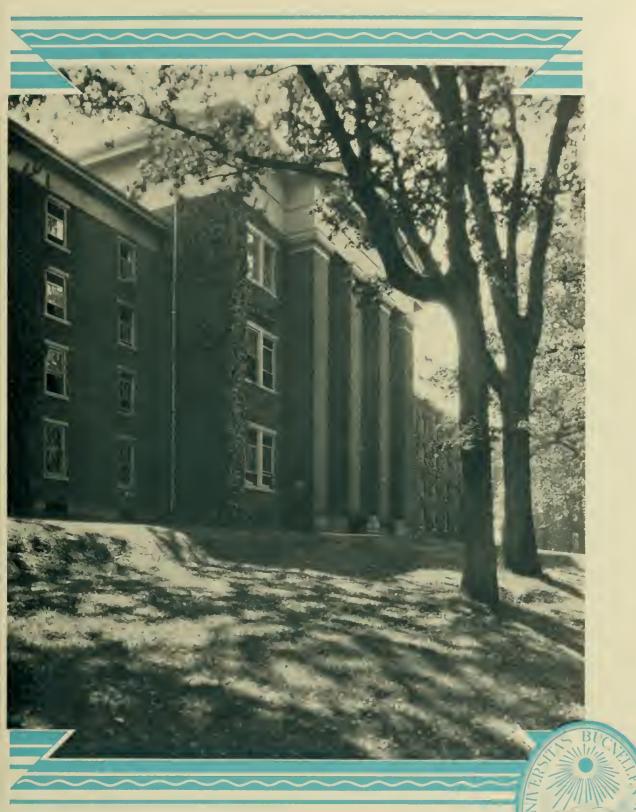

Your student days will end as ours did—all too soon—and your responsibilities to the world, the state, and your community will be felt. Part of your Bucknell training is to fit you for these responsibilities and we know that you will be worthy of them. You will soon join our ranks as alumni and we shall be happy to welcome you to friendship and responsibility for through the union of these two are we enabled to serve Alma Mater.

As you think of us so we think of you—in terms of Bucknell. Let us go forward together determined that with our love and aid Bucknell will become a finer and more noble Mother to us and we shall in turn endeavor to be children worthy of her.

THE ALUMNI COUNCIL OF BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY

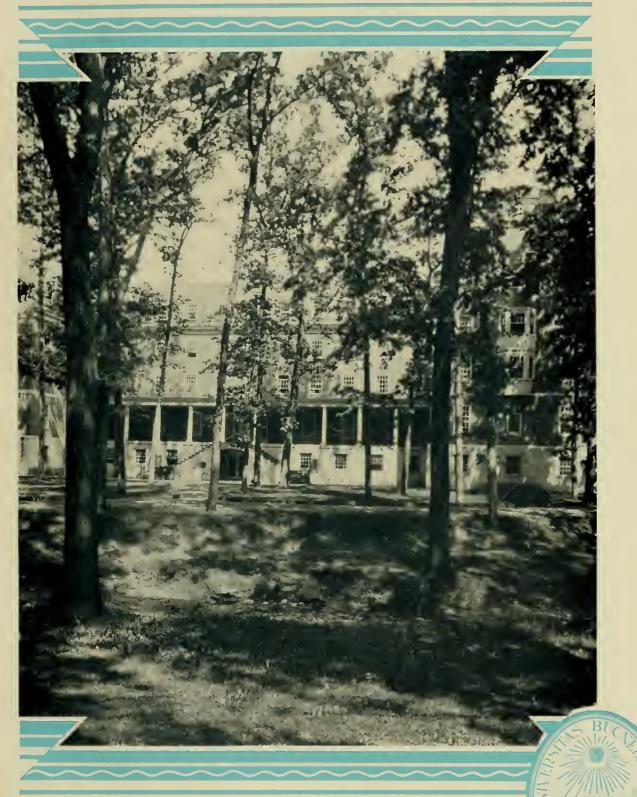

Symbolic of everything that is good and noble, "Old Nain" stands alone in her majestic beauty.

The Memorial Gates, gift of the Class of '09, are emblematic of the love that each undergraduate bears to Old Bucknell.

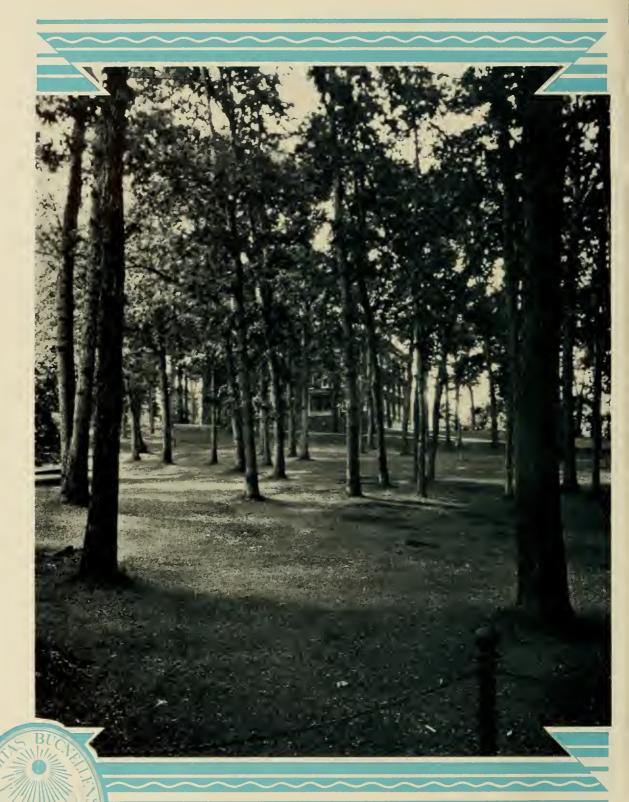

Sheltered by massive oaks, the New Dormitory stands in a grove of unsurpassing beauty.

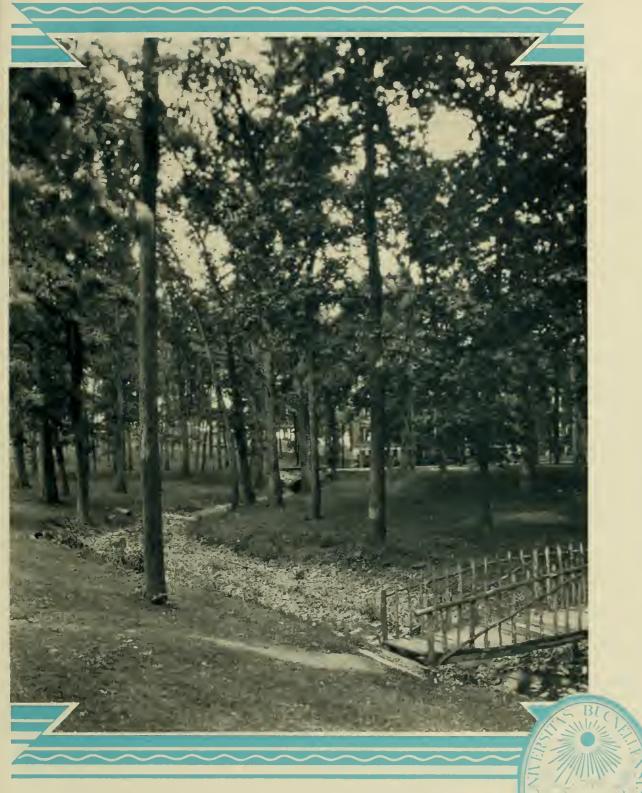

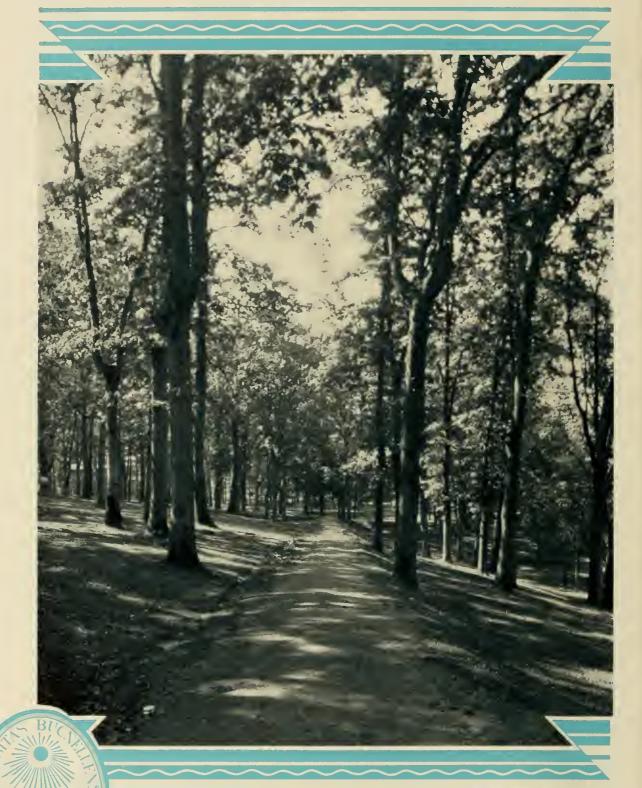

The Tustin Gymnasium as viewed from "The Hill" reveals little of the sturdiness of its massive beams.

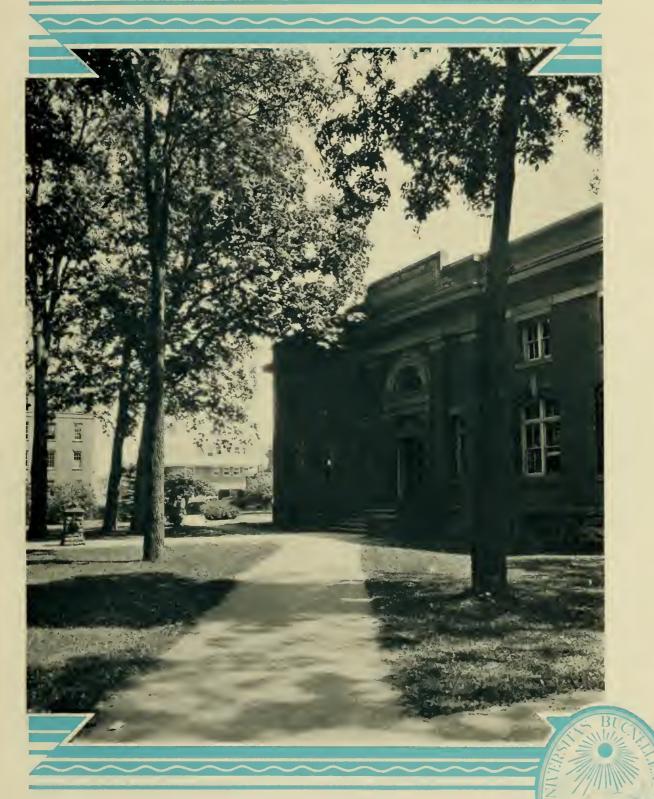

Oaks of unknown age rear their majestic branches to form a part of Bucknell's wooded campus.

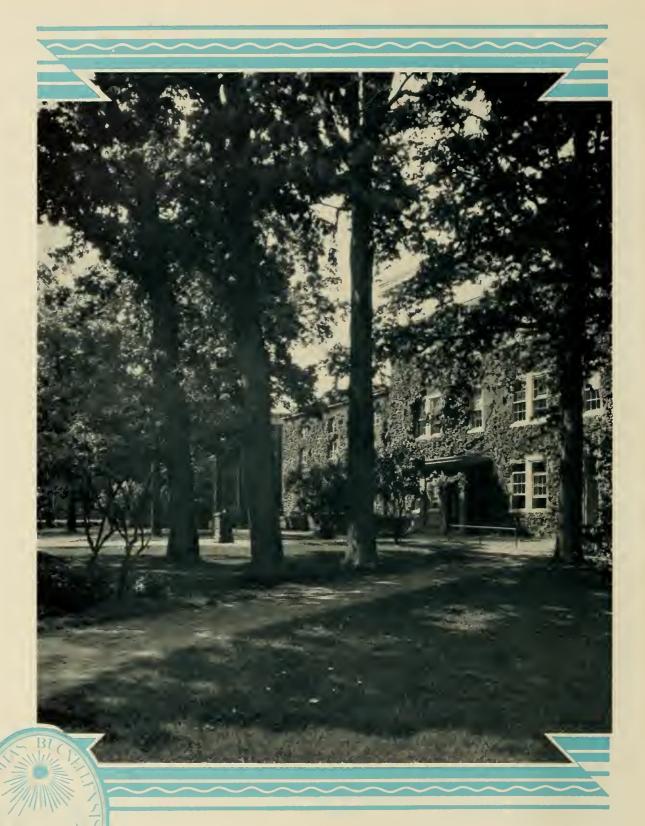

The lower campus, with the Chemistry Building in the background, is a delightful vista of verdant loveliness.

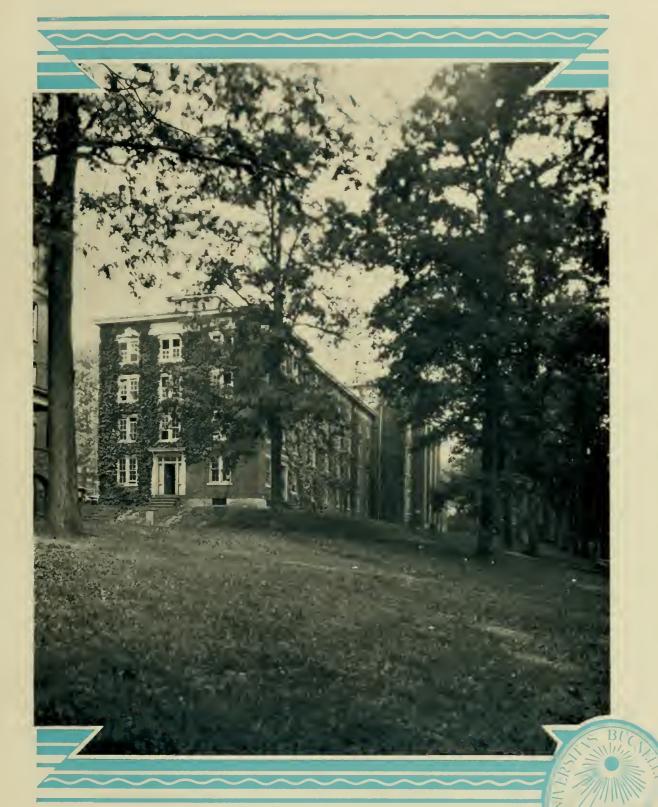

Granquil beauty is possessed by the Carnegie Library. Gypical of it are the surroundings of majestic dignity.

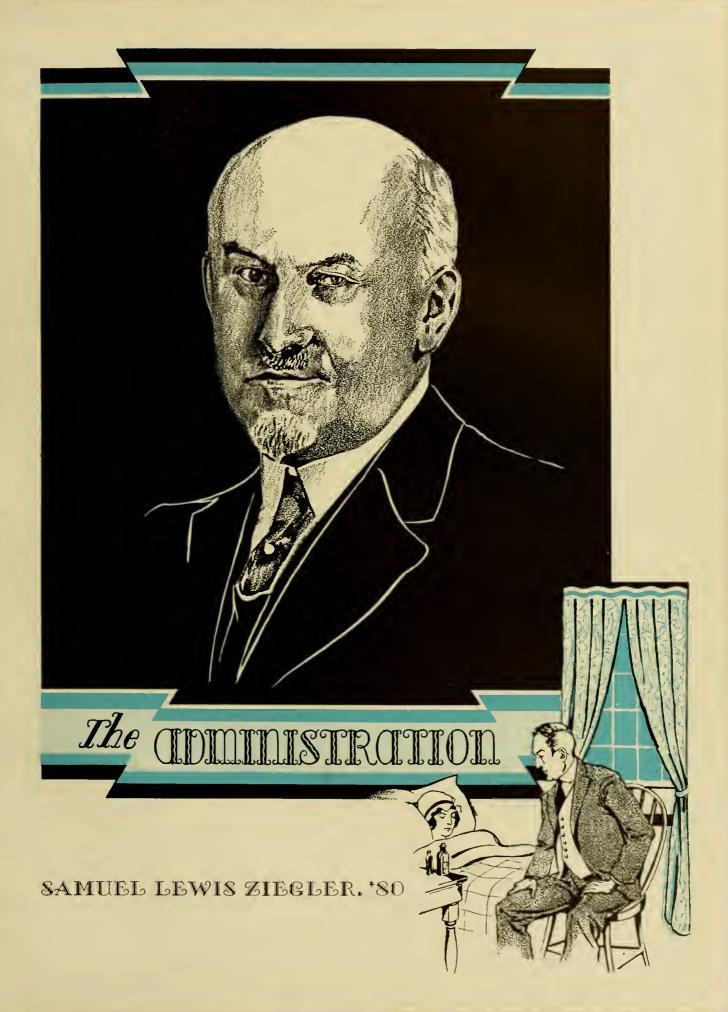

"Well the old Quadrangle knows the music of the gong."

"High upon her storied hilltop, where the oaks entwine proudly stands our Alma Mater, Old Bucknell, benign."

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

OUR years have passed; four summers with the length of four long winters. Now it is all over; the Class of 1931 passes on.

Looking backward over the four years so soon to draw to a close, we find that we, as a class, have changed greatly from our early Freshman days. We dare say that we have grown; we hope that we have ascended from very real naïvete to an approach to sophistication.

From the days when we were excited Freshmen we advanced to a Sophomoric confidence soon rendered almost ridiculous by our Junior assurance. At last, as Seniors, we have reached the culmination of our career.

As Seniors, we, the Class of 1931, feel a keen regret that the time has come for us to leave Bucknell. But, enriched by the associations and experiences that our Alma Mater has given us, we face the future confident of success.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

S Juniors at Bucknell we can begin to catch something of the meaning of the phrase "the flight of years." It seems but yesterday that we came to the campus for the first time. During the course of the years our numbers have shrunk, but we are still the Class of '32!

Many things have happened since our advent— things which are significant to our Alma Mater and to us. There have been changes for the better. We all feel that we have passed from boyhood and girlhood to manhood and womanhood. Hardly one of us but feels the refining and disciplinary influence of college training. Many of us have regrets for lost opportunities, but perhaps these are balanced by the benefits we have received.

We have one more year before we shall truly realize the meaning of "the flight of years." In this last year we must do all the things we have been putting off. Our only hope is that we can accomplish all these things in one year.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

E, the Class of 1933, are hereby firmly resolved that we have reached the high position of Sophomores—not without disappointments and set-backs, but with that certain buoyancy that will keep us going in the years which are to come.

By some people we have been called "Superior Beings," and "Mere Sophomores" by others. We know that our position is neither that of an upperclassman, nor that of a Freshman. We are at the intermediate stage of our college career.

We have been willing to cooperate with our superiors. As Freshmen we realized our position, and made the best of it. Now, as Sophomores, we have recognized the state of the Freshmen, and have shown them much consideration.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

E, the Class of 1934, entered Bucknell University with high hopes and aspirations of making this a bigger and better place for posterity. This worthy ambition was soon smothered by green berets and blue dinks. We were quickly taught that the best policy was for us to follow as lambs in the footsteps of the upperclassmen, picking up pearls of wisdom and their discarded notebooks.

The water parade conducted by the Sophomores proved mirth provoking for the many spectators and wrath invoking for the Freshmen co-eds who were not used to such indiscriminate osculation. Then we were ready to avenge ourselves against the obstreperous Sophomores which we did in a whirl of glory and adhesive tape, ignominously defeating them in the historic inter-class scrap.

Standing on the high heights of one year's association with the real culture of the omnipotent and omniscient upperclassmen, we can see that Bucknell has left an indelible impression on our anatomy as well as our minds, and we thank them for it.

MEN'S DEBATING TEAM

The Men's Debating team engaged in an unusually large number of debates this year. The Scottish team, Bowdoin College, Oklahoma, Florida, Syracuse University, and the University of Pennsylvania were all met at home, while the team made extensive trips to meet Fordham, New York University, Temple, Villanova, Franklin and Marshall, Lebanon Valley, and the University of Maryland. An unusual feature of the year was the broadcast in Philadelphia of the debate between Temple and Bucknell. The success of the Debating Team this year is due, to a large extent, to the expert coaching of Mr. A. L. Brandon.

Y. M. C. A.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Bocknell was organized chiefly to make Bucknell a better place in which to live, by the influence of the personality of Christ. A notable achievement this year was the addition of a full time "Y" secretary in the person of Mr. Forrest Brown to the personnel. Throughout the year the Y. M. C. A. brings notable speakers to the campus and organizes discussion groups.

AMERICAN SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS

In 1852, the American Society of Civil Engineers was instituted for the purpose of advancing engineering and architectural knowledge and practice, maintaining a high professional standard among its members, encouraging inter-communication among civil engineers, and establishing a "central point of reference and union for its members."

The local chapter was installed in October, 1921.

The Student Branch of the A. S. M. It is hoped that the "mysteries" of engineering will be solved by plant visitations, by contact with established engineers, and by frequent opportunity to discuss before an audience those engineering problems which carry the greatest appeal to each student.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS

The American Institute of Flectrical Engineers is the national organization representing the electrical profession. It was founded in 1884, when the possibilities which might follow from an organization which would foster and encourage electrical development were beginning to be realized. The objects of the Institute are the advancement of the theory and practice of electrical engineering and of the allied arts and sciences, the maintenance of a high professional standing among its members, and the development of the individual engineer.

On May 17, 1910, the board of directors of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers authorized the establishment of a brasch at Lewisburg to be known as the Bucknell Branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. Some of the major activities of the branch are as follows: technical meetings at which papers are presented and lectures given by men prominent in the profession, educational motion pictures, entertainment, special laboratory demonstrations, joint meetings with other branches, inspection trips, and electrical shows.

CAPTAIN "TONY" SLATE

UCKNELL had splendid coaches, efficient trainers, and a wealth of seasoned material to begin her arduous schedule. But Bucknell had another great asset— Captain "Tony" Slate— a leader in every sense of the word.

Slate labored under difficulties through the early part of the schedule due to a severe leg injury received during the summer months. His splendid spirit could not be downed by physical injury, however, and "Tony" came back to lead his team to splendid victories.

When defeat came, Slate was not the one to shrug his shoulders in discouragement—rather he inspired his mates to fight all the harder.

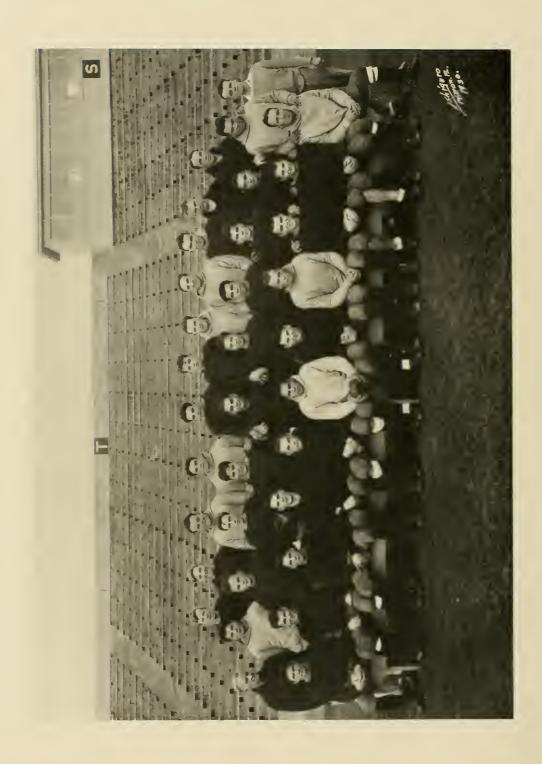

"Tony" excelled as a defensive and interfering back. Bucknell has had flashier backs, but she has had few men who could excel "Tony" in qualities of leadership.

"Tony"

Slate is also a campus leader off the football field, having been president of the Bucknell Y. M. C. A. during his junior year. He is a member of the Druids and of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity.

BUCKNELL 46 GENEVA 6

UCKNELL'S Thundering Herd showed great potentialities in their first game, when they completely bewildered Geneva under a barrage of passes and running plays to win easily 46 to 6 in the Memorial Stadium.

Bucknellians had been expecting a good Bison team, but they received more than they had anticipated. A sextet of backs that ripped the Geneva line to shreds, a great line which rendered feeble the best efforts of the Geneva backs—that was the Bucknell team in their first engagement. Hinkle, Ammerman, Ross, Brumbaugh, Mezza, and Fry were unstoppable.

Geneva was outscored 17 to 5 in first downs, as Hinkle and Ross scored two touchdowns each, and Brumbaugh, Lobel, and Williams crossed the line for other scores.

The fleet backs of the Herd gained 420 yards during the afternoon, Clark Hinkle, fullback, annexing 177.

Geneva's only score came when Ewing, Geneva back, intercepted Ross' forward pass and dashed 70 yards unopposed to the goal line.

When the husky Bisons trotted on the field, Captain "Tony" Slate was absent from the Herd. Slate was kept on the sidelines by an injury received during the summer months.

ZZZZZZZZZZXXKKKKKKK

BUCKNELL 26 ALBRIGHT O

UCKNELL scored twice in the first few minutes of the season's second warm-up game, that against "Doggie" Julian's Albright College eleven, and added tallies in the second and last periods to vanquish the light but fighting Lions, 26 to 0.

The score fails to indicate the closeness of the game, for Bucknell was outscored in first downs 16 to 12 as the scrappy foemen dominated the play through most of the second, third, and last periods.

Sensational runs of 75 and 55 yards by Brumbaugh and Hinkle featured the game. Hinkle tallied twice and Mezza and Brumbaugh divided the other scores.

Bucknell's line play left much to be desired, but in Albright the Bisons were stacking up against a team of hard players, well coached in the fundamentals of the game. Bucknell had been expecting a hard tussle, but they received more than they had anticipated. The fact that Albright rolled up so many first downs is ample proof of their strength.

The playing of Ross, Mezza, and Ammerman gave the first inkling of what this flashy trio of backs were to accomplish in later games.

Captain "Tony" Slate made his first game appearance of the year when he relieved Ammerman in the second half. Hinkle continued to be the spark plug of the Bucknell attack, reeling off 155 yards from scrimmage.

MEZZA

TEMPLE 7 BUCKNELL 6

EMPLE'S OWL was just one point too wise for the Bisons as the Herd engaged the Millermen in the first big night game staged in the East, Bucknell emerging on the losing end of a 7 to 6 score. The contest marked the first game Bucknell had ever played at night.

Thirty-five thousand fans filled the Temple stadium to watch the Owls deceive the Snavely machine with their hidden ball tricks. Beautiful runs of 78 and 63 yards by "Swede" Hansen and Clark Hinkle, rival backfield stars, were directly responsible for the two touchdowns scored. A successful Owl place-kick for the extra point provided the margin of victory.

Hansen's run, made in returning a Bucknell punt, was due to splendid interference by his mates. Temple watched Hinkle closely throughout the game, so that with the exception of his touchdown dash, he was unable to penetrate the strong Owl defense for sizeable gains.

Wilbur Ammerman, Bison halfback, rose to brilliant heights in this game, being the only Snavely back able to gain consistently through the Temple line. Ammerman was injured late in the game, but he had already distinguished himself as one of Bucknell's best running backs.

"Steve" Trudnak at tackle, Clyde Miller at guard, and "Andy" Lobel at end were bulwarks of strength on a Bucknell line which had difficulty in stopping the deceptive Owl attack.

BUCKNELL 14 ST. THOMAS O

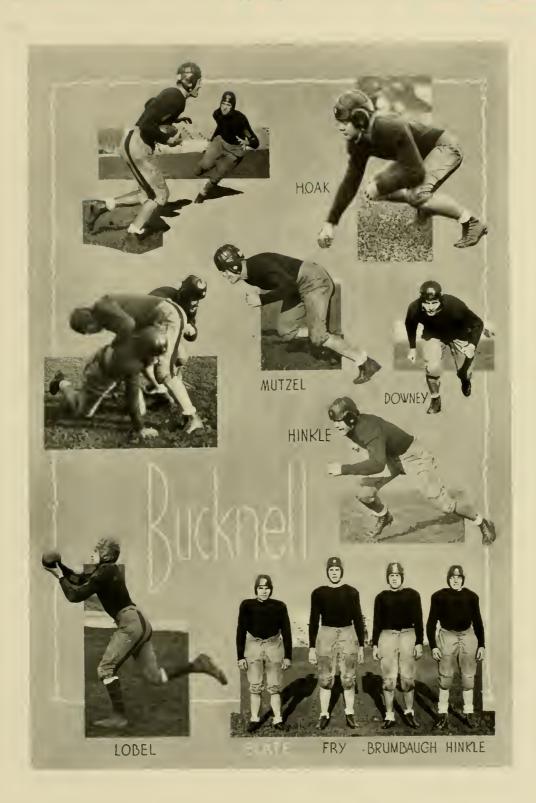

strong St. Thomas team from Scranton held Bucknell scoreless in the first half, only to wither before the great line plunging of "Slim" Mezza and "Bill" Ammerman in the second half to lose, 14 to 0.

Mezza, giant Bison fullback, scored all of Bucknell's points in the torrid Memorial Stadium battle. Ammerman's appearance in the line-up was a distinct surprise following his injury in the Temple game the previous week. But the fast Bison back proved as speedy as ever, as he and Mezza personally conducted Bucknell's crushing touchdown drives.

Bucknell's first score came after a 55 yard advance down the field early in the third period by Mezza and Ammerman. A forward pass, Ross to Williams, good for 29 yards, placed the ball in scoring position again a few minutes later, after Mezza and Ammerman had mangled the St. Thomas line.

Captain "Tony" Slate started his first game of the season in this clash. "Joe" Crowe and "Cy" Marter played good defensive ball on the line.

In the first half, both quarterbacks sought to take advantage of the stiff breeze sweeping down the field by resorting almost entirely to a punting game. It was not until the second half that either team began to vary its attack by rushing and passing.

BUCKNELL 26 GETTYSBURG 6

GOODWIN

UCKNELL did not prove a high water mark for Gettysburg football, and the hitherto undefeated Bullets were sent crashing down to a 26 to 6 defeat. Bucknell played inspired football after a slow first period to coast to victory.

Carl Snavely's team seemed to have found itself against the Bullets. For the first time the Bison line was consistently impregnable. Gettysburg's forward wall crumpled under the charging attack of the Bison linemen, enabling the Bucknell backs to crash through for large gains.

Hinkle, Ross, Mezza, Ammerman, and Brumbaugh had no difficulty in penetrating the weak Gettysburg defense. Bucknell gained much yardage in the kicking exchanges, as Hinkle and Fry booted the pigskin far down the field to drive the Bullets back.

"Tex" Goodwin's pep and fight at his center post was inspirational. "Andy" Lobel continued his fine work at end. Trudnak, "Cy" Marter, "Hank" Seiss, "Sam" Hoak, and "Bob" Williams completed the stalwart Bison first defense.

McMillan, Gettysburg second-string back, made the prettiest run of the game when he scampered 58 yards through the entire Bucknell team to score in the closing minutes of play.

FRY GETS OFF A LONG PUNT

BUCKNELL 19 PENN STATE 7

UCKNELL scored her greatest Homecoming Day victory in years when the Thundering Herd, led by Justin Brumbaugh, trampled Penn State underfoot, 19 to 7, before 15,000 people. It was Bucknell's fourth consecutive win over the Lions.

Penn State's goal line was crossed twice in the first six minutes of play, a record which perhaps no other Bucknell team has approached against the Lion foemen. Justin Brumbaugh ran wild in the first few minutes to tally the first two scores. Both of the flashy halfback's scores were made on end runs of 13 and 17 yards, after he had, almost single-handedly, rushed the ball within the shadow of the State goal posts.

Clark Hinkle scored the third Bison six-pointer on a line buck from the oneyard stripe. Captain Slate, Ammerman, Ross, and Mezza sparkled in the great victory.

Stonebraker and Lobel, Bucknell ends, were outstanding in the first line defense.

Penn State's lone touchdown came in the last few minutes of the game. Captain Frank Diedrich threw a successful pass over the goal line to Batdorf, a substitute back. Batdorf had intercepted a Bison forward the minute before and had run 51 yards to place the ball in scoring distance.

BUCKNELL 20 VILLANOVA 14

ILLANOVA was hammered into submission at Scranton in the second half after the Wildcats had clawed their way to two big touchdowns in the first two periods. Ammerman, Hinkle, and Brumbaugh scored in the 20 to 14 victory.

Ammerman dashed 71 yards off left tackle on Bucknell's first offensive play to tally before the game was a minute old. After this sudden turn of affairs, Bucknell played lethargic football the rest of the half.

With the entrance of Hinkle in the line-up in the second half, Bucknell became a fighting, determined team which would not admit defeat. Hinkle led a 73-yard touchdown march down the field soon after play began in the third quarter.

Bucknell's winning tally resulted from a 50-yard drive led by Brumbaugh and Ammerman, with Brumbaugh scoring from the Villanova 28-yard stripe on an off-tackle slant.

Captain Slate and Ross played fine ball in the backfield. Nikodem and Stone-braker at the ends, Marter and Trudnak at the tackles, Mutzel, Seiss, and Hoak at guards, and Goodwin at center, played stellar ball in stopping the fierce Wildcat attack.

W. & J. 7 BUCKNELL 6

HE Washington and Jefferson jinx, which has held sway for 30 years, was as powerful as ever in the Pitt Stadium, and the Presidents handed the Bisons their second one-point defeat of the season.

"Stew" Wilson, giant W. and J. fullback, almost individually battered and punted Bucknell to defeat. It was early in the third period that Hinkle was forced to punt from behind his own goal line after Wilson's fine kicking had steadily pushed the Bisons back. Armstrong caught the ball on the Bucknell 40-yard stripe and started down the field in a beautiful run, which Hinkle stopped on the two-yard stripe. Wilson crashed through the line to score and a minute later kicked the vital point after touchdown which decided the issue.

Bucknell took the ball to the W. and J. 8-yard line early in the third period, but lacked the punch to score. A few minutes later, however, Bucknell had started a more potent drive which ended in a touchdown by Hinkle. Fry failed to kick the tying point.

Ammerman, Hinkle, and Brumbaugh brought the ball down to the President's 13-yard stripe in the last period, but once again the drive for a first down was lacking, and Bucknell's last hope went glimmering.

Bucknell had greater success with her aerial game at Pittsburgh than in any previous fray. Nine passes were completed for a gain of 103 yards. The Presidents failed to gain ground on their two attempted forward passes. Although the Bisons were outscored, the Snavely backs gained more yardage than their foemen, making 11 first downs to 7 for W. and J.

Stonebraker, Marter, Trudnak, and Hoak played fine ball throughout.

FORDHAM 12 BUCKNELL O

ORDHAM was unstoppable in the first and last quarters at the Polo Grounds and Bucknell received her third defeat of the season, as Fordham's Ram maintained its record of not having been beaten by an Eastern team in the last three years. Twelve thousand people saw the Rams triumph, 12 to 0.

Two gridiron giants stood out throughout the gruelling contest. "Jimmy" Murphy, of Fordham, ran wild in the brilliant advances made by the Cavanaugh machine. "Tex" Goodwin, Bucknell center, proved his worth as he outplayed the much-heralded "Tony" Siano. Goodwin was an indomitable figure as he stopped center thrusts, and went out of his way to make impossible tackles.

Brumbaugh was Bucknell's most effective back against the strong Fordham fortifications.

Nine Bisons —Captain Slate, Brumbaugh, Ross, Lobel, Mutzel, Ammerman, Dann, Martin, and McClain— donned Bucknell grid togs for the last time. Clyde Miller, who held down a guard berth early in the season, did not make the trip to Fordham. His leg injury in mid-season ended his grid career.

Bucknell's only scoring threat came in the last quarter when Brumbaugh, Ammerman, and Ross carried the pigskin to the Fordham 21-yard stripe, but a Bucknell fumble halted the promising Bison drive.

When the Thundering Herd takes the field in the fall of 1931 to trample their gridiron rivals underfoot, they will be led by Cyrus D. "Cy" Marter, Bucknell tackle for the last two seasons.

Marter's election came as a reward for his consistently fine playing. Offensively and defensively a star, Marter has made Bucknell opponents realize that the much talked of strong Bucknell lines are not in any sense mythical.

Football does not claim all of Marter's athletic ability, for he has won two letters as a guard on Bucknell's basketball five. Marter is a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity and of the Druids.

Bucknell won only three of her eleven games of the 1930 campaign, but she climaxed her efforts with a great 1 to 0 victory over the Army.

Franklin and Marshall and Susquehanna were the other teams to fall before the Bison bats. "Steve" Trudnak, giant right hander, was on the mound in all three triumphs.

Trudnak was the most effective Bucknell hurler and would have turned in more victories had he received better support from his mates. Captain "Lefty" James, Clark Hinkle, and "Tom" Jones supplied the Bucknell batting punch.

Hinkle, Ross, Fry, Lobel, Mills, and Jones were the infield mainstays throughout the schedule, while James, Dutchak, and Brumbaugh patrolled the outer gardens. Shaw and Ammerman divided the catching assignment. Long, a left hander, and Fry, Mills, and Shaw, right handers, aided Trudnak on the hill.

The defeat of the Army Mules, coached by Harry "Moose" McCormick, former Bison and big league star, marked the second consecutive win over the New Yorkers, Bucknell having triumphed the previous year also.

New Yorkers, Bucknell having triumphed the previous year also.
"Steve" Trudnak, talented right hander, yielded only five hits which were well scattered, but he had to be at his best to offset the equally fine hurling of Coughlin, Army hurler, who granted only four safeties.

The game marked the last appearances in Bison toggery of Captain James and "Tom" Jones, who proved themselves as brilliant on the diamond as on the gridiron.

TRUDNAK ON COLLEGE HUMOR TEAM

Continuing in the splendid form which characterized his efforts for Bucknell on the diamond last Spring, "Steve" Trudnak, Bison right hander, gained new laurels as a hurler for the College Humor All-Stars.

Trudnak pitched the All-Stars to two of their three victories on the Christmas vacation trip to Panama and the West Indies. The Bucknell star won his first game against the Colon, Panama All-Stars by a score of 4 to 2, when he yielded only two hits. Trudnak also toiled five innings in the last game of the tour against the Cuban Telephone Company Club, amateur champions of Cuba. The Bison pitching ace allowed only four scratch hits and rapped out a single to gain the 13 to 4 victory.

The All-Stars were directed by Les Gage, sports editor of College Humor, who had assembled the leading players of Eastern and Middle Western college baseball circles.

Trudnak's selection on the team was a distinct honor, which showed that his fine work with a weak team had not gone unnoticed in college baseball circles. His excellent pitching on the trip justified his choice.

Bucknell may rest assured of having two more years of good pitching, for Trudnak, '32, has two more years in which to cavort for his Alma Mater on Loomis Field and foreign soil.

Temple, Gettysburg, and Susquehanna were met in dual meets by the Bucknell track team. All three meets were lost, due largely to the unbalanced condition of the Bucknell team, which did not have point-getters in the field events.

Bucknell placed fourth in the Central Pennsylvania Intercollegiate meet held at Gettysburg. Captain "Bill" Mackie broke the meet high-jump record which had stood since 1926. Captain-elect Coates led the team in scoring, garnering points in the quarter, half mile, and mile races. Clifford W. Boothe, Arthur L. Randall, Clement C. Jablonski, Eugene E. Bucknell's second year of varsity soccer resulted in one victory, a tie game, and three losses. East Stroudsburg State Teachers College was defeated in the first game of the schedule, the victory avenging the setback received last season at the hands of the Stroudsburg team.

Penn State, intercollegiate champions last year, handed the Bisons a 3 to 0 defeat after a hard-fought game. Cornell and Navy also triumphed over the Bucknell eleven. Gettysburg was tied the morning of Homecoming Day. Last fall, Gettysburg defeated the Bisons.

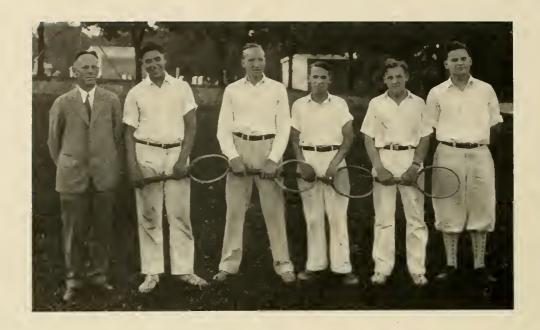

Captain Pederson, Sullivan, and Logan played outstanding soccer throughout the schedule. Much credit belongs to Manager Meadowcroft for arranging such an attractive schedule. The squad was awarded varsity letters.

Bucknell did not enjoy a very successful season on the courts, winning only two matches of twelve scheduled. Two ties were secured, two engagements were rained out, and the Bisons were forced to yield the remaining six matches to stronger foes.

Gettysburg, Franklin and Marshall twice, and Swarthmore humbled Bucknell before a win was registered. Pennsylvania Military College fell before the strokes of the Bisons, but the team resumed its losing ways when Gettysburg repeated her early-season victory. Bucknell battled Susquehanna to two 3 to 3 ties and followed up these matches by defeating Juniata.

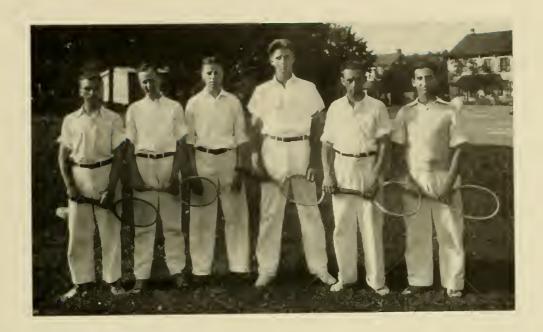

Penn State wrote finis to the season by trimming the Bisons for the second straight year, the final score being 9 to 0. Matches with Ursinus and Juniata were called off because of inclement weather.

Englerth and Siede were the most consistent players on the team, the former being elected to captain the 1930 team because of his fine play. Captain Baker, Englerth, and Siede were awarded letters.

Tennis proved so popular at Bucknell that a junior varsity was organized, the first Bison team of its kind. Competition was keen for places.

Two matches were played, both with Bloomsburg Normal School, in a home and home arrangement. Bloomsburg was victorious on both occasions, winning by scores of 6 to 1 and 5 to 2.

Merle Edwards, '31, featured the Bucknell play in both engagements. Other members of the team were Daniel Halpern, '33, Abe Wasserman, '33, Harold Rose, '33, and Marco Barbarin, '32.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

JOHN D. PLANT NORMAN C. ROSS WALTER H. GRIM Coach Captain Manager

Three lettermen and a small host of lesser lights reported to Coach John D. Plant at the first varsity basketball practice. From the group, Coach Plant plucked a man here, a man there, and welded together an aggressive team.

With Captain Ross and "Steam" Chenoweth back to take care of the forward posts, Plant's chief problem lay in developing a center and two guards to work with this flashy duo. The center problem was a perplexing one, but "Bill" Smith, lanky pivot man on last year's frosh team, finally clinched the berth by his fine jumping and timely scoring.

The reporting of Hepler and Logan, star guards of the Interfraternity League champions of last year, made the filling of the guard posts simpler, as they had played together since their freshman year when they filled the back court positions on the yearling team. "Cy" Marter, a fine defensive man, was also on hand. Marter's fine work under his own basket in getting the ball off the bankboard made him especially valuable in a tight game.

Mills and McGoldrick, mite forwards, filled in very capably when called upon. The Bisons were once again confronted with the problem of meeting three teams on successive nights throughout the schedule, a program which required iron man propensities of the Bison courtmen. Once again practically every game was played on floors of much greater proportions than the practice space in Tustin Gymnasium. Despite these difficulties the Bisons won seven of their games, defeating such teams as Lafayette, Western Maryland, Gettysburg, and Washington and Jefferson.

Captain Ross and Chenoweth were the scoring powers of the team, Chenoweth repeating his sensational shot making of his sophomore year. Captain Ross led the Bisons in scoring. Smith's ability to get the tap made him invaluable, while the fine work of Hepler, Logan, and Marter aided the team in every situation.

Captain Ross, Chenoweth, Smith, Hepler, Logan, Marter, Mills, and McGoldrick earned letters.

Under the expert guidance of Coach Joseph Reno, Bucknell completed its fourth season of intercollegiate boxing with fine victories over Temple and Carnegie Tech.

Bucknell reached her peak in the bouts with Carnegie Tech when the Bison ringmen won all seven fights, four by the knockout route.

Bucknell lost a close decision to the U. S. Military Academy team, but only after presenting the stiffest kind of opposition. West Virginia eked out a four to three victory over the Bisons, who were materially weakened by the absence of Russo and Egel, two mainstays of the team. Bucknell drew with Catholic University and competed in a no decision match with Cornell at Ithaca in other bouts.

The personnel of the Bucknell team was not the same for any two meets, Captain Marchesano being the only member of the team to fight in every match. Kielb in the 115 pound class, Boerner in the 125 pound division, Marchesano in the 135 pound class, and Russo and Egel in the heavier divisions developed into consistent winners.

Promising boxers in the persons of Bienus, Kubacki, and Cohen were uncovered, who should be very valuable in the development of next year's team.

A Bucknell freshman track team was a reality for the first time when the track men of the class of 1933 competed in four dual meets and a Central Pennsylvania Frosh Medley Relay Race.

Lewisburg High School was defeated as was the Gettysburg freshman medley relay team in the Central Pennsylvania Championships, held at Gettysburg. The Susquehanna freshmen and Wyoming Seminary took decisions from the Bisons, Susquehanna winning twice.

Several men were developed who should be point winners on future Bucknell teams. Norman MacKenzie, Sydney Lintz, Stephen Windes, Robert Williams, Giles Helps, Donald Proctor, and Kenneth Wheeling should be of value in the running events. Alexander Grudkowski, Charles Wells, Howard Moser, Robert Cook, and John Younghusband should score heavily in the field events.

Bucknell's freshman team swept everything in its path to become the first

Bucknell yearling eleven to go through its schedule undefeated.

Coach "Mal" Musser's team ran roughshod over such strong teams as Cook Academy, Western Maryland freshmen, Dickinson Seminary, Keystone Academy, Wyoming Seminary, and East Stroudsburg State Teachers College freshmen. Included in the season's record was a 7 to 0 victory over the powerful Bellefonte Academy team. This sparkling victory was the first time a Bucknell freshmen team had ever scored over its Bellefonte rivals.

Their successful season was the result not only of fine playing, but also of a superb spirit of cooperation as well, which carried the team on to the greatest heights any Bucknell freshman squad has ever reached.

Despite the fact that the freshman won only two games in eleven starts, several promising men were developed who should be of use to future varsity teams. James, frosh center, with more experience should develop into a fine pivot man. Myers, forward, and Fisher, guard, should also be of value, because of their speed and shooting ability. Vaughn, a dependable guard, and Ruch, an aggressive forward, completed the first string five. Gilleland and Jett were able substitutes, who, with more playing experience should become good varsity material.

Although the freshman were not a potentially powerful scoring team, they played fine basketball, overcoming to some extent their lack of scoring power by developing a strong passing game which bothered their opponents not a little.

INTRA~MURAL SPORTS

RADUALLY over the last five years intra-mural sports have assumed a position of almost unrivalled importance on the Bucknell campus. Much interest is manifested by the fifteen fraternities and the non-fraternity group in every athletic league.

Every student is offered the opportunity of playing some kind of game. Inter-fraternity leagues in soccer, basketball, and indoor baseball thrive. Interclass boxing bouts are held in Tustin Gymnasium every year.

Approximately 200 men played inter-fraternity league baseball last spring; 255 men competed in the soccer leagues last fall; 170 men were active in league basketball this winter.

The indoor baseball league last spring produced exciting games with Theta Upsilon Omega and Tau Epsilon Delta leading in one league and Sigma Chi and Phi Kappa Psi running one-two in the other. Theta Upsilon Omega vanquished Sigma Chi in two well played games to win the cup emblematic of the campus championship.

The Theta U.'s seemed to have a corner on the campus athletic market as they swept aside Tau Epsilon Delta last fall to win the soccer cup, offered by the Y. M. C. A. The finals were played at night under the arc lights in Memorial Stadium.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon swept through an undefeated basketball campaign to reign as campus champions. Their heavy, sharp shooting team had their work cut out, however, in fighting off the bid of Lambda Chi Alpha, runners-up. Sigma Chi and Phi Kappa were the other teams to reach the semi-finals.

Bucknell co-eds are also very active in intra-mural athletics. Alpha Chi Omega, for the fourth consecutive year, won the hockey championship, by playing through an undefeated season.

As the climax of three hard-fought games, the Kappa Delta team defeated Pi Beta Phi, 31-14, thereby winning the championship and bringing the inter-sorority basketball season to a close.

The first game of the finals was won by Kappa Delta, 19-18, and the second by Pi Phi, 22-20.

dents of Bucknell University could develop their musical talents practically and theoretically. Various musical organizations satisfy the various musical tastes in their particular fields. Boys who prefer the entertaining side of music and like to travel now and then may join the Men's Glee Club. The Girls' Glee Club, in addition to the entertaining side, is desirous to become acquainted with works of the old classical masters joining for that purpose the "Collegium Musicum" orchestra. Both organizations give concerts of high musical standards. What a museum means to those who are interested in art in general the Collegium Musicum similarly applies to the art of music. Bucknell has since 1930 a fully equipped Symphony Orchestra which has created a great deal of interest among gifted instrumentalists as well as the student body in general.

On Friday evening, May 16, 1930, the George Morris Phillips Education Club became the Alpha Xi chapter of the national honorary education fraternity, Kappa Phi Kappa. The formal initiation of twenty-three Bucknell men into the national organization, was followed by a banquet at the Cameron House at which Professor Frederick G. Henke, of Allegheny College, was the principal speaker.

Other speakers at the banquet were, Dean Will Grant Chambers, Assistant Dean Weaver, both of Penn State, Dr. Arthur D. Wright, of Dartmouth, Dean R. H. Rivenburg, and Professor J. H. Eisenhauer.

CARNEGIE EXAMINATIONS

John Swalm Burlew, '30, of Sunbury, was the high scorer and the winner of the $150 scholarship in the Carnegie Foundation examinations given to every Bucknell student last May. His score was 1963, exactly 277 points higher than his nearest competitor.

Dominic A. Zanella, '33, Beech Creek, Pa., who seven years ago could not speak the English language, was second highest, with a total score of 1686 points. He was awarded one of the four $100 scholarships made available to the person having the highest score in the four classes of the University.

Mary V. Laning, '30, won the scholarship for the highest mark in her class with a score of 1534. The scholarship for the highest mark in the Junior class, was won by Ned T. Raker, with a score of 1533. Alfred V. Boerner, '32, won the scholarship in his class with a mark of 1473 points.

MAY QUEEN

Ethel Henion, '30, was crowned May Queen at the sixteenth annual May Day fete held Tuesday, May 27, 1930, in the Memorial Stadium. She was chosen from a court of senior class girls, which included Evelyn Beckworth, Janice Booker, Catherine Browne, Ruth Edwards, Sarah Hawes, Catherine Hill, Mabel Irwin, Frances Kernohan, Emily Maxwell, Jennie Owens, Dorothy Patchen, Marian Raber, Fern Reno, Helen Rider, Miriam Watkins, and Sybil Williams.

In conjunction with the crowning of Miss Henion as May Queen, the pageant "Mid-Summer Night's Dream" was presented by junior and underclasswomen.

COMMENCEMENT PLAY

One of the finest pieces of character-acting done on the Bucknell stage within recent years, was performed by Kenneth Haynes, '31, in the Commencement Day Play given Monday afternoon, June 9, 1930. Haynes took the part of Rufe Pryor, the insane bigot, in the play "Hell-Bent for Heaven." The presentation was the 29th Commencement play given at Bucknell.

Other fine supporting pieces were done by William DeLancey, '31, Arthur Randall, '32, Ellen Evans, '33, Mary Mumma, '30, Ridgway Hughes, '32, and E. K. Lawson, '32. The production was directed by John W. Volgarino, '31, and coached by Professor C. W. Smith.

EIGHTIETH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

Bucknell's eightieth annual Commencement Day began at nine o'clock, Wednesday morning, July 11, 1930, when 177 seniors, together with the members of the faculty and the board of trustees, wound their way up the picturesque path from Bucknell Hall to the Quadrangle, where Dr. William Elgin Wickenden, of the Case School of Applied Science, gave the Commencement address, "Technology and the Human Spirit."

Following Dr. Wickenden's speech, the Bucknell Band played "Largo," from the opera "Xerxes," by Handel. Degrees were then conferred upon the 177 graduates after which the band played the "Song to the Evening Star," from the opera "Tannhauser."

The awarding of the honorary degrees followed. The degree of Doctor of Science was conferred upon the Commencement speaker, Dr. William Wickenden, and Levi W. Mengel, '09, Director of the Reading Public Museum and Art Gallery. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon the Reverend Newton C. Fetter, Baptist University pastor for the city of Boston.

Benediction was pronounced after the annual prize awards had been made to the seniors. The activities for the day were closed with the annual Corporation dinner held in the new dining hall of the Women's College at 12:30 p. m.

Degrees with honors were given to 15 graduates. Mary Virginia Laning, John Newcomer Feaster, Virginia Hall, and Welland Bingham Wadsworth received their degrees Magna Cum Laude, with the first two also receiving Honors in English Literature.

The following received their degrees Cum Laude: Harold Raymond Baker, Mary Elva Bennett, Dorothy May Davies, Fordyce Chapin Hauber, Ruth Eleanor Kizer, Charles Edward Mohr, Etta Fern Reno, Helen Marie Ritter, Margaret Kirk Schuyler, John Mendenhall Snyder, and Sarah Elizabeth Throne.

FRESHMAN WEEK

President Emory W. Hunt opened Freshman Week at Bucknell with a welcoming speech to 360 freshmen on the evening of September 10th in Bucknell Hall. Stressing the fact that college was more than a place to study at, President Hunt stated that "The big thing that's going to happen by your coming to college is not that you are going to learn something, but that you are going to be somebody."

Professor Charles M. Bond, chairman of the Freshman Week Committee, opened the first assembly, after which the School of Music presented a short program. The new freshman dean, J. Hillis Miller, Dean Amelia Clark, and others were presented.

Other activities during Freshman Week found the yearlings taking special orientation exams during the first four days. The annual picnic to Wolfeland was also held on Friday, while a number of Lewisburg churches continued the precedent set some years back with "open houses" held on Thursday evening. Dean Amelia Clark was host to all of the members of the class of 1934 at an informal reception held on Sunday afternoon, in the living room of the New Dormitory.

CONVOCATION

The award of an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws to Dr. George Drayton Strayer was an innovation at the annual Convocation exercises of the University, held on Friday morning, September 19. Dr. Strayer, Professor of Education at the Teacher's College, Columbia University, also delivered the address.

Dr. Strayer in his address urged Bucknell students to use their college years in seeking a life worth living with a view toward righting the economic problems of the world. He said that the unemployment situations now facing the countries of the world, was entirely unnatural, and that students should examine and reconstruct the present economic system with a view toward eliminating as much as possible the employment now present.

The Convocation exercises were preceded by an impressive parade from President Emory W. Hunt's home up the Hill to Old Main, and into Commencement Hall, where the remaining activities occurred. The faculty and members of the four classes took part.

Seven women and eight men were awarded the annual undergraduate prizes during the ceremonies.

DELTAIZETA

The local sorority, Zeta Gamma Tau, was installed as the Beta Theta chapter of Delta Zeta, national organization, at ceremonies on September 19, 20, and 21. The local group made the fifty-sixth chapter of Delta Zeta, which was established at Miami University in 1902.

Thirteen actives were initiated into the national group on Friday, September 19. They were: Evelyn Beckworth, '30; Ruth Avery, '30; Nan Lee Thomas, '30; Janet Murphy, '31; June Reidler, '31; Dorothy Robertson, '31; Helen Hobbs, '31; Olive Barr, '31; Miriam Stafford, '31; Barbara Smith, '32; Helen Naylor, '32; Marie Groff, '33; and Gretchen Fisher, '33.

Twelve alumnae members of the local organization were pledged to membership on Sunday morning. On Saturday evening, the formal banquet was held at the Fireside Tea Room, at 7:30 o'clock.

RIOTS

One of Bucknell's most amorous, wet and smacking traditions was introduced to approximately 200 forebearing sons of the class of '34, on the first Wednesday evening of school, when the annual Water Parade took place as scheduled, with the overweening sophomores in charge.

Sophomores yelled: "Bigger and Better than Ever;" freshmen said, "Not so good." At any rate the coeds had plenty of fun watching the festivities.

The second of the annual class scraps, "The Battle of the Paint Platoons," was held the following Saturday on Loomis Field, when the overwhelming number of green-paint-soaked freshmen easily routed a handful of small sophomores. The freshmen sighed gladly that evening, and scores were even until the annual class football battle took place.

MRS. PINCHOT

Mrs. Gifford Pinchot, wife of the Governor of Pennsylvania, was a guest of the Campus Club at a dinner given on the evening of October 21. Earlier in the day she addressed the Women's Republican Club of Union County, discussing the political status of Pennsylvania.

In a short interview, Mrs. Pinchot stated that she did not intend to write a book about the adventures of her and her husband in the South Seas. She said her interests ran more in a political direction than any way else.

DIAMOND JUBILEE

Dean Romeyn H. Rivenburg, Freshman Dean J. Hillis Miller, Professor C. M. Bond, and Registrar H. W. Holter represented Bucknell at the Diamond Jubilee of the founding of Pennsylvania State College, held on October 24, at State College. At that time Governor John S. Fisher officially presented to the college, twelve new buildings valued at $3,250,000.

ARMY BAND

One of the most successful numbers presented on the Artist course this season was the opening presentation, the Army Band, under the leadership of Captain William W. Stannard. The Band gave two concerts here, afternoon and evening, on October 17.

In the afternoon concert, which was held in the Memorial Stadium, the program given was made up almost entirely of military and popular music. Assistant Professor Paul Gies, Director of the Bucknell Band, conducted the visiting band in its last number before intermission.

In the evening, a large crowd filled the Lewisburg High School auditorium to overflowing, as the band gave a finely-balanced program of every type of music. The Latin-American dances, for which the band is justly famous received prolonged applause.

W. A. A.

Delta Zeta was the winner of the silver loving-cup awarded by the Women's Athletic Association, in its annual membership drive last semester, having reported 100 per cent. membership.

"THE CAT AND THE CANARY"

Cap and Dagger, and Frill and Frown combined to give one of the most weird dramas seen on the Bucknell campus, on the evening of October 23rd, when John Willard's mystery drama, "The Cat and the Canary," was given.

Outstanding among the well-played roles was the portrayal of the shy, hesitant Paul Jones, by Franklin Bower, '33. Other characters in the play were: Crosby, Warren J. McClain, '31; Hendricks, Arthur L. Randall, '32; Charles Wilder, Philip B. Neisser, '32; Mammy Pleasant, Mary L. Smith, '32; Susan Sillsby, Ellen M. Evans, '33; Cicely Young, Elizabeth Dill, '31; Annabelle West, Edna R. Cleckner, '33; Harry Blythe, Aldo D'Alessandro, '33; and Patterson, Walter F. Hopper, 'Jr., '32.

PENN STATE VICTORY BONFIRE

Continuing the precedent set for four years, Bucknell students paraded through the streets of Lewisburg behind the Bucknell Band to celebrate the victory over Penn State on November I, by a 19 to 7 score. "Prexy" Hunt, and Captain "Tony" Slate gave speeches on Loomis Field whence the parade led, and following this, a huge bon fire was set off, after which the crowd dispersed following songs and cheers for every man on the squad.

An interesting sidelight of last season's Homecoming game revealed that Bucknell had won two Homecoming Day tilts prior to the State game. Those games were with Muhlenberg and Lehigh in 1922 and 1926, respectively.

EDUCATION CONFERENCE

Dean Max C. McConn, of Lehigh University, was the principal speaker at the annual Educational Conference held here on October 31 and November 1.

In his opening talk, he said that the junior college in the United States was a pathetic disillusion, and that it failed miserably in any attempt to do the work of preparing the student for higher courses in more advanced schools.

Dr. William W. McClelland, of the University of St. Andrews, Edinburgh, Scotland, was another important speaker at the conference. His special point of emphasis stressed the need of creative education to counteract industrial pressure. "We are lowering our educational standards to coddle the wastrel," he said.

Departmental conferences were held on Friday afternoon, and Saturday morning, and these, in many respects, were perhaps the most valuable features of the conference. They were held under the leadership of various experts in different fields of scholarship, and as such proved highly informative to the visiting educators from Eastern and Central Pennsylvania.

THE UNIVERSITY GOLF COURSE

Ernie Grauer, '33, was the winner in the 18-hole medal play tournament held as a feature of the formal opening ceremonies of the University Golf Course, held Friday and Saturday, October 31, and November 1. He received a trophy for turning in the lowest score of 88.

N. F. Ziegler, '31, was close at the heels of Grauer with a 93, for which he received the runner-up medal. Ziegler also won the prize for having the most birdies on his card, while Grauer had the most pars on his card, six in number, for which he received an additional prize.

H. V. Fisher, '13, won the prize for the kicker's handicap, while Professor James P. Whyte had the distinction of being the oldest man in the tournament. The prize for the entrant coming the longest distance to play in the tournament was awarded to W. F. Shoffstall, of Cincinnati. The driving contest medal was won by J. C. Craig, '21, who drove his ball 230 yards.

Professionals from Western Pennsylvania Country clubs shot a foursome as an exhibition match. Fred Boroni, professional at the Staunton Heights Country Club, established a course record, with a 43 out, and a 39 in, for a total of 82. Emil Loeffler, designer of the course, Benson Eldred, professional of the Highland Country Club, and Perry Delvecchio, professional of the Greensburg Country Club, completed the foursome.

GENERAL TASKER H. BLISS

Bucknell's students, faculty members, and friends were shocked to hear of the death of General Tasker H. Bliss, ex-'73, in the Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, as the result of an intestinal ailment, November 9.

General Bliss was war-time Chief of Staff in 1917, and led an active career for more than half a century in military service with the United States Army. He served on the Supreme War Council, when that body, composed of President Wilson, Colonel House, Robert Lansing, and Henry White, managed the war from the United States angle.

Prominent in the history of Bucknell was the Bliss family. The General's father, George R. Bliss, was the first professor to teach at the University, and, at one time, was acting president. Tasker Bliss, entered the University in 1869, as a member of the class of 1873. While at Bucknell, General Bliss became a member of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity. After staying here two years he secured an appointment to the United States Military Academy, from which he graduated to lead his most illustrious military life.

STATE POLICE

Major Lynn Adams, superintendent of the Pennsylvania State Police spoke here twice on November 18, as the guest of the political science department. In the afternoon he spoke in Bucknell Hall to a public gathering on the topic, "The Functions of the State Police in Pennsylvania." In the evening he addressed Pi Sigma Alpha, the political science fraternity, following the installation of new members.

KRESS SCHOLARSHIP

Rush H. Kress, '00, a member of the Board of Trustees placed into competition during this past scholastic year, a cup which shall go to the national fraternity, in existence for the past ten years, with the highest scholarship. This cup is in addition to the one given by the Y. M. C. A., which is open to all fraternities, national or local on the campus.

The following seven fraternities will be eligible to compete for the Kress cup: Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Chi, Phi Gamma Delta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Kappa Delta Rho. Other national fraternities will be eligible, as soon as they meet the ten-year requirement standard.

DELTA ETA CHI

Delta Eta Chi, local fraternity, became Beta Epsilon chapter of Alpha Phi Delta, national non-sectarian group, at special exercises conducted by delegates from the national fraternity on November 16.

Following the initiation exercises, a formal banquet was held at the Lewisburg Club, at which Dean R. H. Rivenburg, Dean J. Hillis Miller, Professor Peter Sammartino, Grand Councillor of the fraternity, and S. D. Franzino, '31, president of the local chapter, spoke.

Professors F. E. Burpee, Orel S. Groner, C. M. Bond, N. F. Davis, F. G. Ballentine, H. W. Robbins, H. L. Childs, F. G. Davis, and F. A. Sprague, and Dr. Lester P. Fowle, were other guests at the banquet.

DR. G. W. CARVER

"I like to tune in with the great forces of nature," is the statement that best typifies Dr. G. W. Carver's struggle to wrest the secrets of nature from her grasp. Dr. Carver spoke under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. on the evening of November 10, in Bucknell Hall. As part of his talk on science, he placed on view a number of products which he has been able to make from a scientific study of the lowly peanut.

LARRY GOULD

Dr. Lawrence M. "Larry" Gould, thrilled a crowded Lewisburg High School auditorium, in the second Artist Course number on the night of November 18, when he gave his lecture on the Byrd South Pole expedition, of which he was second in command.

Dr. Gould, former professor of geology at the University of Michigan, illustrated his lecture with six reels of film, and numerous slides, which colorfully depicted the epic struggle of man in his attempt to conquer frozen Antartic.

PLEDGE BANQUET

Bucknell's first Pledge Banquet was held Monday night, November 17, at the Women's College under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., when pledges from the sixteen men's fraternities assembled to dine and to hear Russell "Rusty" Callow, coach of the University of Pennsylvania rowing squad.

Coach Callow told the freshmen to place the college before the fraternity, saying that while the fraternity was capable of a great amount of good, it was also able to do quite a bit of harm, if not handled properly. He said, "I've found it necessary to stop the election of a captain when fraternity politics endangered team spirit."

GOOD WILL SEMINAR

Interesting suggestions for the removal of religious discrimination were offered by leaders of the Jewish, Catholic and Protestant faiths during a Good-Will Seminar held here the week-end of November 21, and 22.

Among the interesting suggestions offered were these: "That a program of religious education be inaugurated in our public schools; that American children be taught how the children of other nations and faiths live, so that the 'foreigner feeling' might be done away with;" and "That similar seminars be held throughout the nation."

Addresses were given by Rabbi Abram Simon, of the Washington Hebrew Congregation, Washington, D. C., and Dr. George W. Richards, president of the Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church in the United States, Lancaster, Pa. A paper prepared by Dr. George D. Bull, S. J., of Woodstock College, Maryland, represented the Catholic viewpoint, and was read to the Seminar group.

DULCY

One of the most brilliant of campus dramatic successes was given by eleven candidates for Cap and Dagger, and Frill and Frown, when George Kauffman and Marc Connelly's satiric comedy, "Dulcy" was presented Thursday evening, December 4, in the Lewisburg High School auditorium. Philip Neisser, '31, directed the play.

Bessie Snyder, '34, was charmingly realistic in her interpretation of the innocently-interfering Dulcy. Her ability to put fire and sparkle into her lines contributed to making the play the distinct success that it was.

The other characters, all of whom gave decidedly good performances, were: Gordon Smith, James Lees, '34; William Parker, Harry Fithian, '34; C. Roger Forbes, John T. Anderson, '31; Mrs. Forbes, Ellen Wolfe, '34; Angela Forbes, Virginia Dunkle, '34; Schuyler Van Dyck, Allen Middleton, '31; Tom Sterrett, Phillip Boscarell, '33; Vincent Leach, John James, '32; Blair Patterson, George L. Abernethy, '32; and Henry, Robert Walsh, '34.

BACH CONCERT

The delicacy of touch of Paul S. Robinson, Philadelphia organist, and the colorful singing of Albert Weidensaul, '28, were the exceptional features of the all-Bach program given Monday evening, December 8, in the Baptist Church, as the first of a series of concerts sponsored by the School of Music.

Mr. Robinson, despite the handicap of the inadequacy of his instrument, reached notable heights in his presentation of the familiar "Toccato and Fugue in D Minor," and of "Prelude in C Major." Others on the program were, Miss Melicent Melrose, Miss Janet Mench, and Miss Ruth Hlavaty, all of the School of Music.

DR. GATES

Dr. Irene Gates, brought here from New York City, by the Sociological Club, spoke before psychology, sociology and biology classes, the mornings of December 5 and 6, discussing the psycho-therapeutic aspects of medicine. On the evening of December 5, she engaged in a session with pre-medical students, pointing out to them, what they might expect in medical school, and how important a developing philosophy of life was needed by the medical student. Saturday afternoon, December 6, she was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Eisenhauer at Mountain View Inn, where another session with thirty pre-medicals was held.

MUNCY TRIP

Sixty-five students interested in criminology made up the party that visited and inspected the State Industrial Home for Women, at Muncy, on Tuesday afternoon, December 9. The trip was organized by the department of Sociology.

PHI EPSILON MLPHA

Permission to apply for a charter for a local Jewish sorority to be called Phi Epsilon Alpha was granted to ten women by the faculty the middle of last semester. The petition for permission to found the chapter was signed by Dorothy Miller, '32; Pearl Nieman, Josephine Lefkowitz, Harriet Keamer, Laura Goldstein, Lillian Lanyon, Leah Gedrich, Ann Dorson, and Ada Blumenthal, all of '34.

TONY SARG'S MARIONETTES

Puppets may come, and puppets may go, but the laughing, sobbing, prancing marionettes of Tony Sarg will go on for a long, long time. Such, possibly, were the thoughts of eight hundred people who thronged the Lewisburg High School auditorium, the evening of December 17, to witness Lewis Carroll's "Alice in Wonderland," as presented by Tony Sarg's Marionettes, in an Artists Course Number.

SCOTCH DEBATE

John M. MacCormack, of Glasgow University, and Charles Bidelspacher, '33, of Bucknell, took the affirmative side of the question: "Resolved: that the principles of nationalism afford the ideal basis for the organization of world society," against Norman Alexander Bruce Wilson, of St. Andrew's University, and Bertram Cohen, '32, of Bucknell, in Bucknell's international debate of the season.

Wilson gave the audience a treat by his appearance in the Scotch national garb of kilties, supplemented by a formal jacket. His dress represented the famous Bruce clan of which he is a member. Edward C. Strock, '32, manager of the debating team, acted as chairman.

"THE MESSIAH"

A large audience filled the Baptist Church, Sunday afternoon, December 14, to hear Handel's Christmas oratorio, "The Messiah," presented by the School of Music.

The Lewisburg Madrigal Choir, conducted by Professor Paul G. Stolz, was accompanied by Janet Mench, organist and Ruth Hlavaty, pianist. Melicent Melrose, soprano, Inez Robison, alto, Charles Winters, tenor, and Albert Weidensaul, bass, sang the solos of the oratorio. The entire program was well-rounded, and showed able direction and training throughout.

DR. EPHRAIM M. HEIM

Paying tribute to Dr. Ephraim Marshall Heim, '93, who for more than 40 years had been connected with Bucknell as a student, and later as a teacher and benefactor, faculty members, students and townspeople gathered in the Baptist Church, Tuesday afternoon, December 16, where funeral services were held for the popular and kindly professor, who had died at the Geisinger Memorial Hospital early Sunday morning.

Classes were suspended as Bucknellians paused to honor the professor, who as head of the department of Commerce and Finance, is said to have taught 3,000 of Bucknell's 5,000 alumni. Faculty members, in caps and gowns, attended in a body, as did the members of the local chapter of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity, of which he was a member.

Dr. Raymond West, pastor of the Baptist Church, and a friend of Dr. Heim's for many years past, together with President Emory W. Hunt, spoke at the services. President Hunt said, "He was bigger than any subject with which he was for the moment associated."

ACTING PREXY

Dr. Charles P. Vaughan, prominent Philadelphia business man, and member of the Board of Trustees since 1920, was made acting president of the University during a two-month period beginning in January, in the absence of President Emory W. Hunt, who made a southern trip in the interests of his health. Dr. Vaughan will continue as acting president in June, provided a new president has not been elected by then. The Board of Trustees has promised to release President Hunt at that time, and will make him president emeritus.

LUND BOOK

Of interest to many Bucknellians was the new book, "Emotions of Men," which Dr. Frederick H. Lund, former Professor of Psychology at Bucknell, wrote last year, and which was released in December by Whittlesey House. This is Dr. Lund's second book, and most of it was written last summer prior to his departure for Philadelphia in September, where he became affiliated with the department of Psychology at Temple University.

RUTH PAGE

One of the season's artistic triumphs presented to Bucknellians January 12, by way of the Artists Course, was executed by Ruth Page, prominent danseuse, whose varied and rhythmic program was a masterpiece of interpretation.

Perhaps the most impressive of Miss Page's repertoire of dances was "Balinese Rhapsody." An exotic number which found a responsive chord in the audience through its weirdness, was "Incantation," which Miss Page did superbly well.

WICKERSHAM

Walter R. Moore, '30, graduate student, and Marie Groff, '33, working in conjunction with Professor Harwood L. Childs, head of the department of Political Science, were important aids to the Wickersham Commission on Law Enforcement and Observance, in the latter's survey of conditions in Williamsport, during the last semester. The students gathered data on the volume and kind of crime in Williamsport; the cost of police prosecution; and penal and corrective treatment. They were aided by the officials of Williamsport, who threw open to them all the available records and data on hand.

NEW RULES

As the result of observation of women's rules at other colleges, the coed rules at Bucknell are expected to undergo extensive revision, providing the commission deputized by the Women's Student Senate makes suitable recommendations.

The commission is made up of four faculty representatives. They are Miss Eliza Martin, librarian; Mrs. F. A. Sprague, assistant professor of French; Byron S. Hollinshead, assistant professor of English; and Dr. Leo L. Rockwell, professor of the Germanic languages.

JUNIOR PROM

Approximately 200 couples danced to the strains of Paul Graham and his Coral Gables orchestra on the evening of Saturday, February 20, as the Junior Promenade went off in record-breaking style. William Sweet was chairman of the committee which arranged the function.

Dean and Mrs. R. H. Rivenburg, Dean Amelia Clark, Dean and Mrs. J. Hillis Miller, and a host of faculty members and their wives made up the receiving line.

One of the most startlingly original and refreshing speakers that visited the campus during the past year was Dr. Bruce Curry, who was brought here by the Y. M. C. A. He held group conferences at the Kappa Sigma house on February 27, 28, and March 1. As a sub-division of his general topic, "The Contribution of Jesus to a Confused World," Dr. Curry placed especila emphasis on the question: "Will the colleges produce leadership adequate in technical ability to manage and adaquate also in spiritual insight and perspective, to direct it for the betterment of mankind?"

TAU EPSILON DELTA

Sigma Alpha Mu, one of the oldest Jewish nationals in the fraternity world, pledged the local fraternity, Tau Epsilon Delta, to national membership on Sunday afternoon, February afternoon, in the T. E. D. house. The local chapter will become the thirty-seventh in the roll of the national fraternity. The formal initiation into the national group will be completed in September.

SCHOOL OF THE AIR

Station WJBU opened Bucknell's first school of the air the evening of February 20, when Professor P. L. Harriman, head of the department of Psychology delivered the first of a series of lectures titled "Knowing Ourselves." A second course will be offered in economics by Professor R. L. Matz, head of the department of Commerce and Finance. Interested radio students were asked to write in to the station for complete information and were privilgeed to keep a notebook, which they will turn in for correction at the end of this semester.

GRAINGER

Playing and lecturing before one of the largest audiences of the year, Percy Grainger, noted Australian pianist, scored a big hit with an appreciative Bucknell audience in an Artists Course number given Tuesday evening, February 24. Mr. Grainger gave a varied program, which ranged from Bach to melodies written by himself. He preceded his numbers with a short sketch of the history and meaning of the number.

RULES REVISION

Committees for rules revision for Bucknell coeds were appointed by the student commission at a meeting held February 25. Any suggestions made by the commission will probably be effected in September of the coming semester. The first, a committee for the demarcation of the administration and the women's student government, is made up of Rachel Gawthrop, '31, Helen Mowry, '31, Virginia Kandle, '32, and Clare Conway, '33. Another, a committee for the revision of class privileges of women has Ann Sprout, '31, Elsa Haug, '32, and Frances McGee, '33, for its members. The committee on social regulations is made up of Doris Miller, '31, Janet Murphy, '31, Mildred Walton, '32, and Dorothea Milliken, '34.

"JEEVES"

Chris Kammire, '31, won the first prize and ten dollars in gold in the one-act play contest sponsored by Theta Alpha Phi, with his comedy-drama, "Jeeves." The presentation and announcement of the award was made by John T. Anderson, '31, before the opening curtain of "Craig's Wife," on March 12. The prize-winning play was decided upon after a five-hour session the previous Sunday afternoon. The runner-up in the contest was "Park 4002," by John James, '32, and Kenneth A. Haynes, '31.

Dr. Childs will go to Berlin this summer to pursue his studies of the state-group relationships, the first results of which appeared in his recent book, "Labor and Capital in National Politics."

"JOURNEY'S END

Delta Sigma celebrated its Founders' Day by giving its thirty-second annual drama, "Journey's End," in the Lewisburg High School auditorium, the night of March 7. The famous war-time drama by Robert C. Sheriff, was very capably and ably presented.

Bagnall, a member of the administrative staff of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Rabbi Louis L. Newman, of the Congregation Rodeph Sholum, New York City, and Arthur Swift, director of field work at the Union Theological Seminary, were the guest speakers at special sessions here.

Dr. Warne in his talks painted the future of American business in no uncertain terms. He was not particularly optimistic about any phase of it, but he pointed out that a solution might be found in reorganization.

In the other talks during the Institute week, Rabbi Newman revealed religious phases of American life, Mr. Swift painted the gangs of New York, and Mr. Bagnall described the lot of the American negro in the cities throughout the country.

"CRAIG'S WIFE"

Arthur Randall, '32, scored one of the season's dramatic triumphs in his direction of "Craig's Wife," which the combined stage clubs presented on March 12. Randall was aided in his fine work by the efforts of Bessie Snyder, '34, and W. Frederick Yust, '31, who as Mrs. and Mr. Craig thrilled a crowded Lewisburg High School auditorium, to the utmost.

Others in the cast were: Miss Austen, Italia Bertagni, '31; Betty Thayer, '33; Mrs. Frazier, Anne Landis, '33; Ethel, Betty Jane Rodenbeck, '31; and Fredericks, Franklin Bower, '33.

He escaped Saturday morning and arrived in Lewisburg in time to attend the dance. Duke Morris and his Melody Masters from State College played for the dance.

BUCKNELL UNIVERSITY

EMORY W. HUNT, D. D., LL.D., D. C. L., President

The presence of beauty creates in the heart the love of beauty, the desire for beauty, not merely of a physical kind, but of every sort. So Bucknell's ancient oaks, while they may not make scholars, do play no negligible part in the shaping of student character. They are one of those intangible influences which, united, make up the atmosphere of of a real university.
